About Us

We are dedicated exclusively to recruiting and placing Medical Affairs professionals in life sciences companies in the United States and around the world. We're one of healthcare's largest and most respected agencies for providing permanent and contract Medical Director Services (MDS) and Medical Science Liaison Services (MSLs). The company benefits from a performance-based culture built upon the core values of trust, leadership, expertise, and accountability, which have allowed it to enjoy year-over-year growth since entering the Medical Affairs arena.
